Walnuts as Fuel.
Every fall we call attention to the value of walnuts as fuel to take the place of coal. In speaking of this the Owen County Democrat says:

Black walnuts are better for fuel than coal. They burn easier, make a quicker and hotter fire and last well. There is a big crop of black walnut in Owen county this year. Gather them and dry them in the barn with hulls on them and use them just the same as you would coal. You can mix with coal or wood if you prefer. A ton of black walnuts will make more and better heat than a ton of coal. Coal is very high this year. Save your walnut crop and you will save just that much money. Try it and you will be convinced."

Cause of Appendicitis.
The London Lancet, the great medical magazine of England, gives a new cause for the great increase of appendicitis, which, coming from such a source, is worthy of consideration. It says this is due to the substitution of iron and steel for the grindstones in the flour mills. Minute particles of iron become mixed with the flour and cause the disease.

A Law-Abiding County.
The Democratic campaign speakers have found the most orderly town and county in the State. A newspaper correspondent speaks as follows: "Mt. Olivet is the most law-abiding place in the State, and the entire county follows the example of that county seat. Few infractions of the law occur, and the police and other officials have an easy time. The jail is not a large affair, and it is insecure, but sufficient for the needs of the place. During the last year there have been only three prisoners in the place. One of these men was put there the day Judge Hager spoke. He was a negro, 'jugged' for selling whiskey on the fair grounds. The other two prisoners disturbed religious worship. So few prisoners are in the jail that the jailor cannot earn a living on the salary as jailer, and clerks in a grocery store to piece out his earnings.

In one of the towns in which the candidates spoke the crowd around the candidates were talking, and something was said of a certain small town not so far from Louisville. One man asked another if he had ever been in that place. The reply was:

"Yes, I spent three weeks there one afternoon."

An Old Man.

Sandy Owens, an ex-slave, now in good health, said on Monday that if he lived to see August 19 next, he would be 100 years old. He has been married 8 times, six when a slave and two since freedom. He is the father of twenty-seven children by his first six wives. He was never so sick that he had to go to bed, and is one of the most highly respected colored men in the county.—Mt. Sterling Gazette.

The Rev. R. H. Wightman, of Paris, was here the last of the week looking for a house in this city in which to move his family. Mr. Wightman is a Presbyterian minister and has the care of several churches up the road. He was wanting to locate here and serve his churches from this point. Owing to the scarcity of houses he found it a very difficult undertaking to find a suitable home.

On this page we publish the Program of the Powell County Farmers' Institute to be held at Stanton next Wednesday and Thursday. This meeting should be attended by every farmer and everyone in the county interested in farming. Be on hands both days.

Charlie Welch was in Montgomery county the first of the week looking at some bluegrass land in view of buying a farm. Charlie has a good farm near this city and one that is hard to beat any where for the production of corn and hay.

Mrs. Ann French is in Louisville where she has undergone an operation for stomach and bowel trouble.

Success plays no favorites. She is won only after a strenuous courtship.

We are authorized to announce JOHN P. GAYLORD candidate for Jailor, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Low Down Politics.

The Republicans have all along been claiming the support of a large portion of the Confederate veterans, and Dr. Bruner, who spoke at Stanton a few weeks ago later became so bold in his claim as to say 80 per cent. of the old Confederates would vote the Republican ticket, and even went so far as to say at Campbellsville Sept. 26 that our neighbor, Judge Robt. Riddell, of Irvine had stated 'that while he had always voted the Democratic ticket, if a yellow dog was running, this time he intended to support the Republican ticket.'

Capt. R. A. Webber, of Campbellsville, who served in the Confederate army with Judge Riddell, not believing the statement, wrote Judge Riddell, to which he answered in the following letter:

Irvine, Ky., Oct. 4, 1907.—Capt. R. A. Webber, Campbellsville, Ky.—Dear Sir: I have just returned and received your letter of the 26th, which was addressed to me at Mt. Sterling and forwarded to Irvine, and in reply thereto, beg to say that I do not know Mr. Bruner, or at least have no recollection of ever seeing him; but I did not tell him that I intended to vote the Republican ticket and have no intention of doing so, but intend to vote the Democratic ticket, as I have done for the past fifty years. Yours very truly,

ROBERT RIDDELL.

This shows what desperate straits the ticket is in. What could the people of Kentucky expect with such a man as the author of this falsehood Secretary of State?

Remindful.

The cool days this week remind us that the baseball fan will lose his job, the highball fiend is broke, the mothball crank is now abroad spreading odors thick as smoke. The ice cream soda has fizzed out, the ice man slacks his pace, the small boys save their nickels now to buy a comic face. For Hallowe'en will soon be here with pumpkin spooks and pranks, and if the hoodlums pass us up we surely may give thanks.

The football rooter, full of root, will go off on his his Autumn foot; the player with the college hair, the while the horns and trumpets blare, will butt around till he is thrown and someone breaks his collar bone. The lusty sound of rah-rah-rahs will urge the fall and bloody cause; the girls, in mass and colors come, will sing and scream and swallow gum. The giant fullback, fierce and stout, will pick a little fellow out, kick in his slats and change his face, and maul him up and down the place, and when the foe shall cease to breathe, will proudly claim the victors' wreath.

Bryan in Kentucky.

W. J. Bryan came to Western Kentucky and made thirty speeches Monday and Tuesday in behalf of the Democratic candidates for State offices. It rained at every stop Monday, but the crowds came to hear him just the same and he that day spoke to 25,000 men women and children who braved the rain and mud to hear the famous Nebraskan speak. He had a better day Tuesday and the crowds were immense everywhere. Bryan is loved by every Democrat in Kentucky and is admired by every honest voter in the United States. He made many votes for the ticket in this state during his brief visit.

Simple Home Recipe.

Get from any prescription pharmacist the following:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Shake well in a bottle and take a teaspoonful dose after each meal and at bedtime.

The above is considered by an eminent authority, who writes in a New York daily paper, as the finest prescription ever written to relieve Backache, Kidney Trouble, Weak Bladder and all forms of Urinary difficulties. This mixture acts promptly on the eliminative tissues of the Kidneys, enabling them to filter and strain the uric acid and other waste matter from the blood which causes Rheumatism.

Some persons who suffer with the afflictions may not feel inclined to place much confidence in this simple mixture, yet those who have tried it say the results are simply surprising, the relief being effected without the slightest injury to the stomach or other organs.

Mix some and give it a trial. It certainly comes highly recommended. It is the prescription of an eminent authority, whose entire reputation, it is said, was established by it.

A druggist here at home when asked stated that he could either supply the ingredients or mix the prescription for our readers also recommends it as harmless.

Jokes on the Home Paper.

There are great many people in every small town who like to crack jokes about their home paper. They like to ridicule it and hold it up for facetious comparison with the metropolitan newspapers. They expect their home paper to lie for them, laugh for them and weep for them, and the only time it is really ridiculous is when it does this. If these people lived in a large city the only way they could get their names in one of the papers would be to go and lie down in front of a street car or jump off the roof of a high building. They could become a father a dozen and one times, or they could preside as chief mourner until they had enough crepe tied around their hat to lasso a horse, and wouldn't get any consolation out of their boasted city papers, but a few misspelled names among the vital statistics.

Texas has solved in a strenuous way the problem of killing monopolies and trusts. Under the new law the selling of goods manufactured by a trust is deemed a felony, and upon conviction the offender is subject to imprisonment for from two to ten years in the penitentiary.

Milliners have produced a new hat which they call the "Airship." Were they not high enough before?

A young man who is pointed out as "one of our most successful citizens" is that young man who "did things."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

WEEKLY COURIER-JOURNAL

And

THE TIMES

Both one year for only

One Dollar.

The Presidential election is approaching. "Times have changed." That is all. Mr. Watterson is a Democrat, and has always been a Democrat, never a Republican. Essential differences out of the way, Democrats are getting together. The Courier-Journal is going to support the ticket. And there you have it.

Send your order for this combination to us—not to the Courier-Journal. The regular price of the Weekly Courier-Journal alone is $1 a year.
